OBJECTS AND REASONS.

This Bill has been prepared to replace the General Loan and Inscribed Stock Enactments, 1899, of the four States; it follows a model draft drawn up by the Crown Agents for the Colonies. Its provisions are generally similar to those of the Enactments of 1899 except that it provides for the raising of money by debentures or by inscribed stock or partly by debentures and partly by inscribed stock, whereas the Enactments of 1899 provide for inscribed stock only. Clauses 4 to 23 of the Bill, relating to debentures, have thus no counterpart in the existing laws.
